

Model Interfaith proposed to UNAOC

Welcome to Model Interfaith

Model Interfaith aims to improve understanding and cooperation among nations and peoples across cultures and faiths, and reduce polarization at local and global levels. It helps develop more inclusive societies, in which diversity is experienced as an asset. It does this by helping college and university students take leadership in their own lives, and in turn reach out beyond themselves.

Model Interfaith includes facilitated classroom experiences, state-of-the-art web-based interactive resources, and interfaith action projects with practical, empowering interfaith tools.

Students begin their Model experience by participating in Launching Leaders, a personal development and leadership course that applies core values to all areas of life in an interfaith environment.

Launching Leaders graduates “rise above and make a difference” by implementing what they’ve learned, creating interfaith action projects in their communities that can also feed into other global initiatives.

Model Interfaith Action Projects

- Find a Better Job – strategies for identifying and obtaining better employment.
- Giving Back – Graduates identify and lead service projects, organizing individuals or groups to band together and perform any number of services - infrastructure improvement, clean up, humanitarian relief, care for the homeless, or otherwise
- Mentors & Mentoring – setting up mentoring micro networks designed to lift the sights of young people to greater educational and job opportunities.
- Charting Your Course – teaching individuals or groups the process for planning their lives, establishing “way points” to measure progress toward larger goals.
- Financial Fitness – financial self-reliance principles taught in a workshop format in homes and villages, including budgeting and goal setting.
- Habits of Success – identifying good and bad habits, and how habits can shape an individual’s or an entire community’s future.

RISE ABOVE AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Launching Leaders Format

Launching Leaders is a hybrid course with rich online content (mobile optimized video, interactive exercises, and assignments) and weekly in-person facilitated discussion group.

Learning Management System: www.litmos.com (A leading LMS based in Dublin, California, USA.)

Projects

Students develop a personal plans for their lives throughout the course and present them to the group at the end. Their plans include financial self-reliance and giving back to their local communities through various means. The group decides on an interfaith service project that they plan and execute during the course to contribute to the community where the course is being held. Individuals or groups also do projects in hometowns or other locations.

Suggested Project: Run an interfaith "Find a Better Job" weekend seminar (see next page).

Find a Better Job

Launching Leaders Course

Using the materials from Find a Better Job, Launching Leaders participants will help people in their communities learn new skills that will help them find a job faster than before. Some of these skills are: networking, matching our skills to the employer's needs, power statements, written materials, interviewing skills, and more. At the start of each meeting, participants will talk about ideas from My Foundation that will help their lives and help them believe that the Lord can and will help them find a job.

Finding a Better Job is a facilitated group with printed and video resources. It's part of Model Interfaith.

Project Objectives

1. To use a practical resource (Find a Better Job) as a means of interfaith action.
2. To meaningfully assist people in one of the fundamental needs of life - finding and succeeding at a job.
3. To learn skills in group facilitation, interfaith action, and project coordination.

Finding a Better Job Topics

1. The Fundamentals: Basics of a Job Search
2. Networking: Asking for help to find a job
3. Match Your Skills to the Employer's Needs
4. Power Statements: Explain your skills
5. Written Materials: CVs and cover letters
6. Do well in your Interview
7. Practice Interviews
8. Accelerate Your Job Search: Shorten the time looking for a job

Interfaith Resource

Many economic and social problems are overcome when people of different religions and beliefs work together in faith and action. In My Foundation we will learn from the major world religions including Christianity, Islam and Judaism. By looking at them together we will learn from the best that is around us. Together we are stronger than if we were apart. We will need this strength as we start on our path to a great life.

My Foundation is a facilitated group with printed and video resources. It's part of Model Interfaith.

Course Objectives

1. To develop an understanding of how spiritual principles apply to everyday activities.
2. To apply these spiritual principles in my own life and encourage others to do the same.
