

How are you feeling about AI and HR?

How are you feeling about HR and AI?

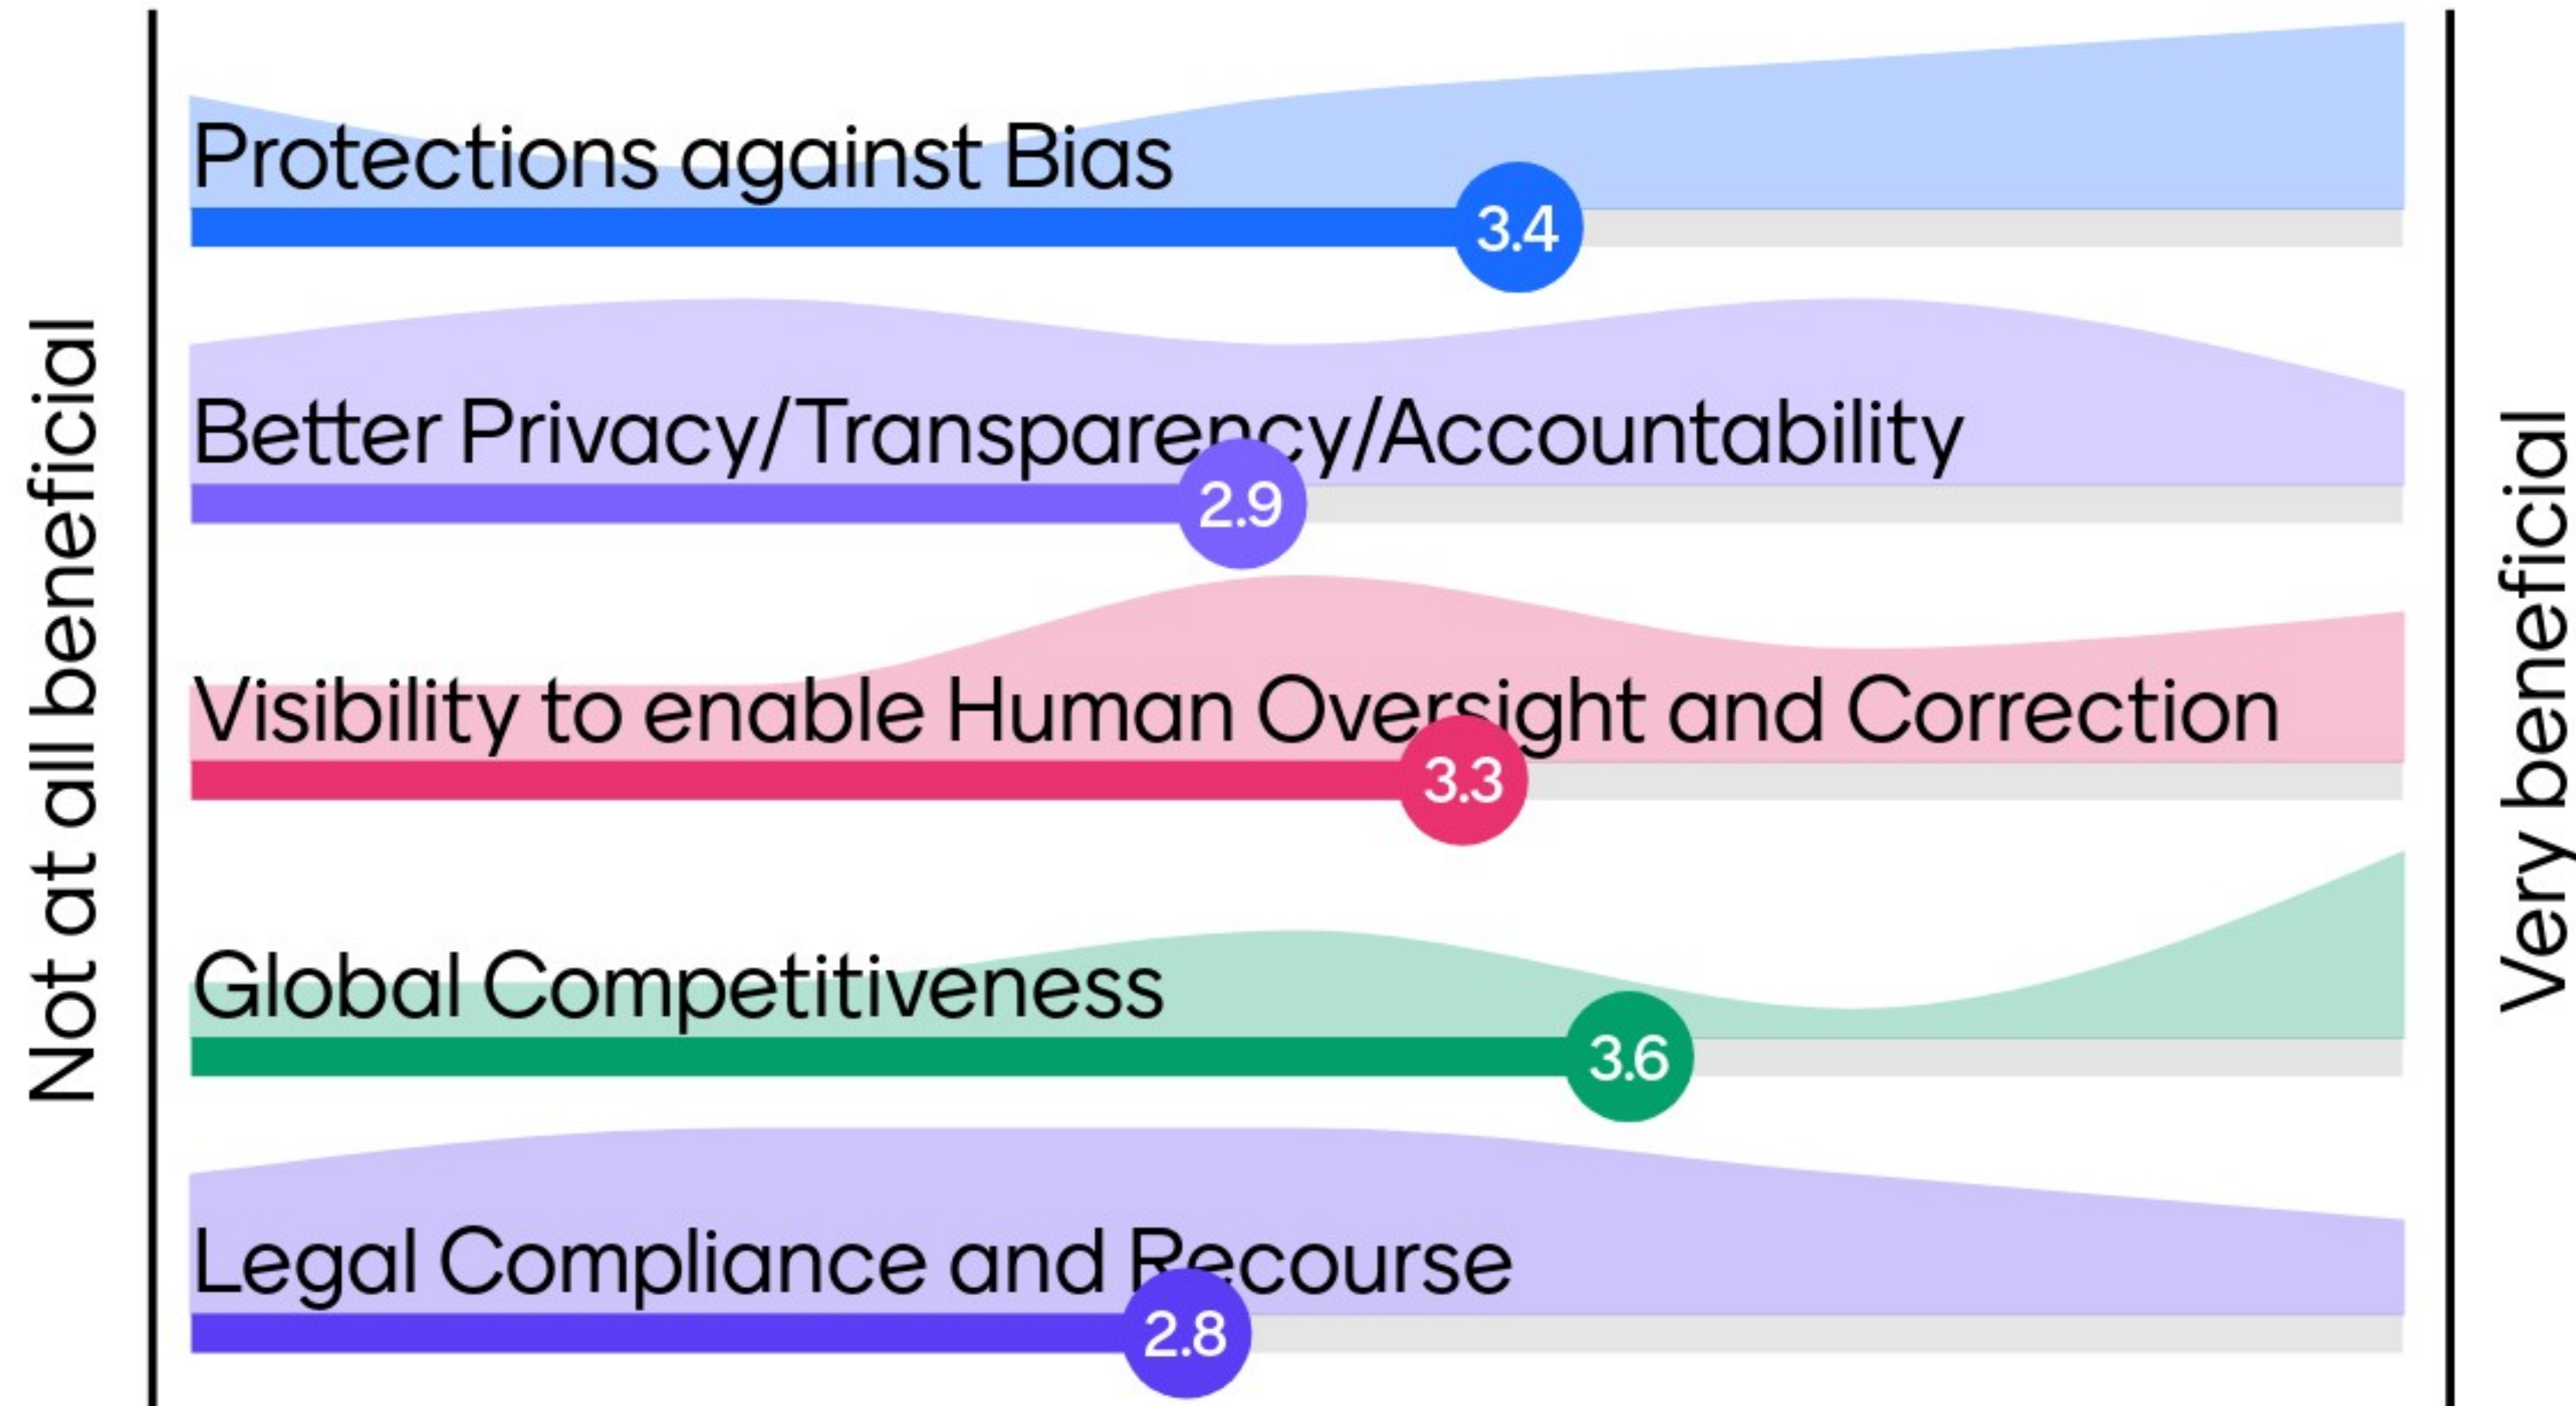

1

Rate your concerns for each of these areas

What benefits do you see with AI and HR ?

What "good practices" would you like to share?

Responses:

Keep the dialogue going.

Values dialogues can help to set up ground rules that all faiths can stand behind

Discussions like this to take place in each company.

Be the change you want to see.

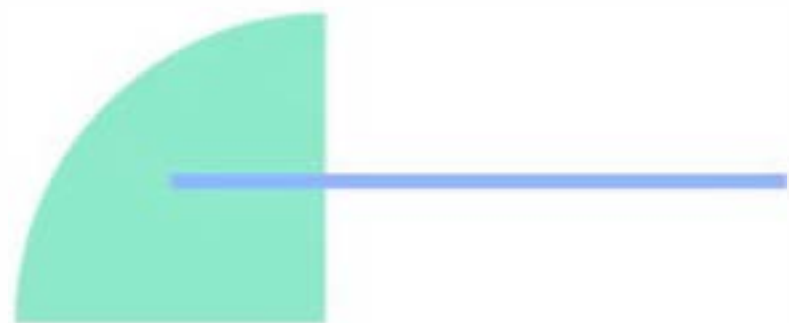

I see some analogies between Tax Evasion Risks and AI Risks continue these conversations with RFBF member companies and our loved ones that don't have access to these conversations.

See something, say something

Be courageous in ensuring your religious freedom is not compromised at work. If it is, speak up.

Keep prayer an intentional part of your processes

What "good practices" would you like to share?

14 Responses

Include country level laws. EU laws

Often, people of faith means just means different types of Christians. Work hard to involved all faiths.

Begin with the end in mind: Start building a business case NOW as to how AI will increase efficiency & productivity.

Avoid making value judgments in discussions

Ask what is best for the employee lowest on the hierarchy and work up.